President's Message Theo van der Meulen

It is a great pleasure to once again welcome attendees, guests, and presenters to the 2025 VAPS Convention and Exhibition in the beautiful city of Castlemaine. This marks the third time Castlemaine has had the honour of hosting the VAPS convention, with previous events held in 1966 and 1986. This year we celebrate the 71st year that we have been able to bring our photography community together to share information, admire each other's work and to simply enjoy the company of like-minded friends.

Once again, the VAPS team is proud to present a program which will inform, inspire, and entertain you. I am confident that our exceptional team of speakers will deliver an exciting and diverse range of topics, energizing us to approach our photography goals with renewed enthusiasm.

Further, our range of workshops will provide opportunities to get some hands-on experience under the guidance of our expert presenters.

Of course, the Convention, as well as improving our photography skills and knowledge, also provides a wonderful chance to renew friendships and simply catch up with others participating in the wonderful creative hobby we all share. The Friday night casual get-together and the Saturday dinner, where we celebrate the achievements of our friends, are wonderful opportunities to enjoy the social aspects of the Convention.

Organizing a Convention and Exhibition of this magnitude is only possible through the coordinated efforts of many groups and individuals, led by our Convention Coordinator, Joseph Maher.

On behalf of the VAPS committee, I would like to extend our sincere appreciation and to:

- The members of the Mount Alexander Photographic Society, led by club president Harley Parker, who have generously provided the support needed to deliver our program and contributed the cover page photo for this catalogue.
- The staff at Mount Alexander Shire Office, who have been immensely helpful to the VAPS team during the planning stages.
- Our team of judges, who put in a great deal of effort to evaluate the entries for our VAPS interclub exhibition. Their dedication is especially notable given the higher-than-usual number of entries.
- The staff of the Castlemaine Golf Club who will host the Saturday night dinner.
- Our sponsors whose generous donations provide prizes for category winner.
- All our volunteers whose support is invaluable in making the event happen.

A personal highlight for me each year is the exhibition of our Interclub entries. Having seen many of these works throughout the year in club competitions, it's truly humbling and inspiring to view the collective efforts of our entire community. The quality and range of ideas are always exciting, and I encourage everyone to invite their friends and family to experience it. Entry to the exhibition is free and open to the public.

I sincerely hope you will enjoy the hospitality of the Mount Alexander Photographic Society and the delights of Castlemaine. Please join us in all the activities, formal and social, and make this another great VAPS Convention.

Theo van der Meulen
President VAPS

Welcome:
President
Mount Alexander
Photographic Society

The Mount Alexander Photographic Society (MAPS) warmly welcomes VAPS members, photographers, friends and guests to Castlemaine.

Originating as the Castlemaine Amateur Camera Club in 1901, the society began with an inaugural meeting at French's Talbot Drug Store, Castlemaine where experienced photographer Mr. Milligan introduced the art of photography.

He described the aims of photography... and afterwards illustrated practically the developing of plates, etc. The primary goal was to demystify photography for beginners, a mission that quickly garnered interest.

By March 1901, the club had established a darkroom and lecture hall at the School of Mines, fostering hands-on learning and outdoor expeditions. In summary, the Castlemaine Amateur Camera Club's journey, illustrates a passionate community's dedication to exploring and advancing the art of photography.

Today, 124 years later, MAPS continues to inspire amateur photographers, adapting to the evolving technical landscape while maintaining the timeless pursuit of capturing the perfect image.

The society thrives in a historical region rich with photographic opportunities, including:

- Castlemaine's historic Market Building
- Theatre Royal
- Lyttleton Street's numerous heritage buildings
- Buda Historic Home

There is also the Garfield water wheel constructed in 1887, when powered by a Stamper Battery at a gold mine near Chewton. Other nearby attractions include: Maldon's Porcupine Village, the Victorian Goldfields Railway that runs between Castlemaine and Maldon, plus the Taradale Viaduct further enhance the area's appeal for photographers.

MAPS has been very pleased to have worked closely with the VAPS team to make this a successful conference. Lastly - to the members of MAPS who have given freely their time to help with the conference, and provide assistance in many ways - my humble thanks.

Harley Parker, President, Mount Alexander Photographic Society

Welcome:
Mayor Rosie Annear
Mount Alexander Shire Council

I'm pleased to welcome the Victorian Association of Photographic Societies to Mount Alexander Shire for their 2025 convention.

I'd like to acknowledge the Dja Dja Wurrung people, the Traditional Custodians of the land on which Mount Alexander Shire is situated, and pay my respects to their Elders past and present, as well as young and emerging leaders.

Castlemaine – and our region as a whole – is the perfect place to host a photographic convention, full of First Nations and goldrush history, heritage shopfronts and streetscapes, beautiful flora and fauna, and plenty of scenic lookouts and stunning views. We're an area known for our vibrant community of artists and creatives, and the many galleries, studios, performances, and events that showcase their work.

In the heart of Castlemaine, inside the beautiful Market Building, you'll find artwork and photography by local creators, as well as Boorp Boorp Boondyil, an exhibition dedicated to sharing Jaara culture, stories and teachings.

At the Castlemaine Art Museum, you'll see a unique collection of Australian art, First Nations cultural material and historical local artefacts. In the foyer of the Phee Broadway Theatre (where you can catch some spectacular shows), Council hosts a range of exhibitions by local artists.

And that's just to name a few! There is so much to see and do throughout the shire – I hope you get a chance to explore while you're here.

We're proud to host the Victorian Association of Photographic Societies' 2025 convention. It's a fantastic opportunity for photographers to learn, share, network, and grow.

I hope you enjoy your time here, and find inspiration in our beautiful and unique shire.

Mayor Rosie Annear

Striving to continuously improve the quality of photography, the APJA educates and trains photographic judges in Australia by enhancing their skills to better their knowledge of photography as well as servicing the photographic community.

The APJA is a fully resourced guild with over ten years' experience in training photographic judges especially in Victoria.

This year the association is offering these courses:

Panel Training – commencing on Friday 14 March. Panel Judging is a 5-hour course conducted over 2 nights and covers image critique and panel judging.

Core Training – commencing on Friday 9 May. This course will cover the basic skills and knowledge necessary to further your development in club photography judging.

Judges Training – commencing Friday 8 August. The purpose of the course is to continue the professional development of photography judges. The course is also suitable for those wanting to improve their understanding of image critiquing.

All courses are conducted remotely by Zoom and are interactive.

Further details of the courses on offer are available on the APJA Website – <https://apja.org.au>

All participants must register for any course through the APJA Website.

Training benefits –

- Improve knowledge of the photographic pursuit.
- Improve students' photographic knowledge and skill.
- Help others improve their photography skills.
- Ensure sufficient quality judges available for photographic clubs.

Come and join the APJA and be an active member of the Australian photographic community.

VAPS INTERCLUB 2025 THANK YOU CAMERA CLUBS ONE & ALL!

It was pleasing that overall, 47 clubs have entered a total of 679 digital images, 614 prints and 21 Audio Visual entries in 2025.

All entries were judged either remotely (EDPI & Audio Visuals) or face-to-face (Prints) to the standards of any VAPS Interclub.

We thank all of the organisers, judges, judge helpers, support members and the Mount Alexander Photographic Society who have worked together to ensure the tradition of an Interclub for Victorian Camera Clubs continues.

... See you in 2026

Our Presenters Profiles:

Ian Rolfe

With Ian, Light is everything, and as a professional photographer he specializes in creative outdoor images, concentrating on travel and landscape. His love of light and his passionate approach to what light does to the subject are evident in his images.

For nearly 50 years now, he has continually honed and developed his unique approach to the Landscape and continues to be a devotee of the amazing beauty that's found in the great outdoors. Extensive travels throughout the world, have resulted in an extensive photo library used in the travel industry and global photo libraries.

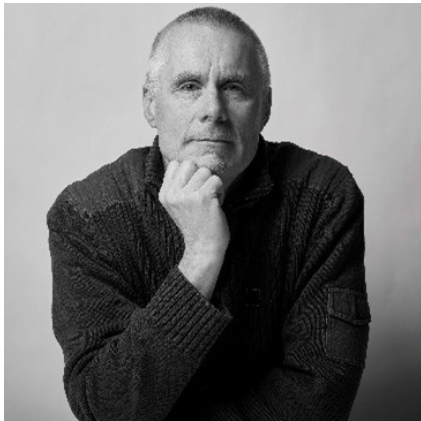

Ian started writing a column for the Photo-master magazine about twenty-five years ago. Since then, he has written and published over 160 articles for various magazines and published 3 of his own photographic books. Thousands of Ian's images are sold each year to appear in books, magazines, newspapers, travel brochures and to many commercial websites, screen-savers and the like.

His photographs too, have been purchased specifically by the National Library of Australia, The British Museum, The BBC, Apple, National Geographic, The National Park services, every Australian TV Network, NBC Universal, IBM, Qantas, Air New Zealand, Australia Post, Huawei mobile, French Geographic, Microsoft, Dulux, Red Bull, Fairfax media, The Victorian Government, Lonely Planet, Time Magazine, Yahoo, Flight Centre, Mobil Exxon, National Audubon society, Cambridge University, Google and many other fine media outlets and institutions worldwide.

Although getting older, Ian is still involved in at least one Photographic Landscape workshop each year, to destinations both locally and internationally. His Photographs have won many Gold, Silver and Bronze medals both here in Australia and at International Salons.

He is a Grand Master of the Australian Photographic Society, has been awarded the distinction of Artiste from the International Society of Photographic art, and awarded a medal for special services to the Victorian Association of Photographic societies and the Australian Photographic Society. He also became an associate of the AIPP when it was active, and was also a founding member of the Australian Photographic Judges Association.

Our Presenters Profiles:

Adrian Whear, APSEM/s, is an amateur street and documentary photographer with a deep passion for exploring the streets and alleys of his hometown, Melbourne, and its inner suburbs.

Through his walks, Adrian started to discover his home city's true soul. His photography journey began by simply photographing whatever piqued his interest, gradually shaping his unique vision and style.

As a street photographer, Adrian's goal is to transform ordinary, everyday scenes into something extraordinary, offering a fresh perspective on the mundane.

Adrian has attained the APSEM/s distinction from the Australian Photographic Society, won gold medals from both FIAP and PSA, and been a finalist in street photography competitions in Gothenburg, France and Australia. His work has been showcased in exhibitions across Australia, Sweden, Slovenia, Vietnam, Croatia, the United Kingdom, and Bangladesh.

In 2022, Adrian self-published his first book, Detour, which reflects his distinctive approach to storytelling through the lens.

Presentation – My Street View

What is street photography? Maybe you have considered trying street photography but are a bit nervous about it all. No doubt, photographing in public spaces can be a bit intimidating at first.

Join Adrian Whear, a documentary and street photographer from Melbourne, who will share his philosophies and approaches to street photography when walking the streets of Melbourne and further afield. Adrian's tips are designed to help sharpen your visualisation and storytelling skills so you too can capture better, high impact street photos.

Our Presenter Profiles:

Andrew Rovenka

Ukraine born and raised, Andrew has been calling Australia home for the past 20 years. With a background in commercial photography, he eventually shifted focus to personal projects, favoring film photography as his medium of choice.

This transition allowed him to explore creative narratives unburdened by commercial constraints, leading to the development of more personal and visually compelling stories.

Based in Melbourne, Andrew has gained international recognition for his evocative images, particularly through the acclaimed series The Rocketgirl Chronicles that was born out of Melbourne's extended lockdowns.

Andrew's images are characterized by their rich textures, cinematic compositions, and an emotional depth that invites viewers to look beyond the frame. His photographic philosophy is rooted in storytelling, with each frame carefully composed to capture not just a moment, but a feeling. Whether he's photographing urban landscapes or intimate portraits, Andrew's work is imbued with a sense of nostalgia and narrative depth.

Andrew has been named 2021 Australian Photographer of the Year by the Australian Photography Magazine and his work received international recognition with a number of awards and publications including Vogue, Marie Claire and Rolling Stone Magazine and has been exhibited across the world.

Presentation - Backyard Space Travel: Capturing extraordinary in everyday.

An inspiring deep dive into the Rocketgirl Chronicles, Andrew's renown photographic project exploring the hidden power of obstacles and what the wisdom of a four year old can teach a seasoned photographer.

Our Presenters Profiles:

Adrian Donoghue

Adrian is a story-telling creative photographer who has won multiple international photographic awards.

These include numerous gold medals and FIAP blue pins at international salons, as well as the International Photo Awards (IPA) 2022 Fine Art Photographer of the Year, and Capture Magazine's 2022 Australia's Top Emerging Photographers open winner.

Like many enthusiast photographers, Adrian's interest in Photography began in his childhood; however, it was not until the early 2000's that he had the time to devote to it more fully. His return to photography coincided with the start of the digital revolution, and he not only embraced the technology of digital capture, but also the creative potential of post processing using Photoshop. He has gone on to develop a distinctive photographic style which tell stories of mystery and intrigue, or just pure whimsy.

Adrian is a long-time member of the Doncaster Camera club and was a recent recipient of a VAPS Meritorious Service Award. He is a regular presenter at camera clubs, both in Australia and overseas, and a judge at both national and international levels.

Presentation - My story-telling photographic journey - what were the steps along the way?

A review of a 20-year journey that started with single capture street photography and evolved into more complex studio-based composite photography. This evolution has resulted in a look and style which underpins Adrian's two major photographic series; namely, the 'Lonely Man' series, and the more recent, 'Adventures of Young Matilda'.

Our Presenters Profiles:

Dani Watson

Dani is an internationally acclaimed photographer whose striking fine art and landscape imagery is held in private and corporate collections worldwide. With a Master of Arts in Photography and extensive formal training in digital photography and photo imaging, Dani has honed her craft under the mentorship of industry leaders, including Ken Duncan OAM. Over the years she has built a reputation for capturing the raw beauty of nature in its most fleeting and profound moments. Her award-winning work explores the relationship between light, landscape and atmosphere, creating immersive visuals that transport the viewer into the scene's heart. Whether capturing the ethereal glow of an aurora over rugged coastlines, the delicate interplay of mist and shadow in ancient forests, or the infinite textures of remote desert landscapes, Dani's images evoke a deep sense of presence and wonder. Dani's dedication to her craft has earned her prestigious accolades, including the 2023 Australian Emerging Photographers Award in Art Photography, runner-up in Architecture, and three Top 10 Landscape placements. She was also a finalist in the Australian Landscape Photography Awards 2023-2024, securing fourth place, with her work widely recognised for its technical excellence and emotional depth. Her fine art prints are sought after by collectors across Australia, Europe, North America, and Asia, gracing luxury interiors, corporate spaces, and gallery walls. Each of Dani's images is a testament to her deep connection with the landscapes she photographs—offering not just a visual experience but a moment of stillness, reflection, and reverence for the natural world.

Presentation – Beyond the Lens: Finding Your Connection to Photography

Drawing from her Master of Arts Photography project, Connection, Dani explores how photography is more than just capturing a scene— it's about forging a deeper relationship with your subject, pushing creative boundaries, and embracing the journey of discovery.

In this presentation, Dani shares how creating something truly unique requires stepping beyond conventional techniques, experimenting with new approaches, and not being afraid to fail in the process. Through her own experiences of redefining photographic practice, she highlights the importance of risk-taking, personal storytelling, and developing a visual language that resonates.

Our Judges Profiles - EDPI Judges

Margaret Zommers

I have been judging for ten years, around Melbourne, country Victoria, a few interstate clubs and a few nationals and internationals.

My qualifications include Grand Master Australian Photographic Society, Excellence, bronze level, in the International Federation of Photographic Art and Proficiency in the Photographic Society of America.

A Meritorious Award and a State Service award have been given to me by VAPS and SSAPS by APS.

I have tackled many genres, and judge all except macro and wildlife/nature as I have not had enough experience in doing those types of images.

I am more interested in the aesthetics of an image than its technical aspects and usually concentrate on that when giving comments in club competitions.

Emma Gilette

I have always been an artist and a creator – initially working in the mediums of painting and drawing.

I studied Fine Art and Education at Deakin University (graduating with Distinction in 2006), then proceeded to work in schools, teaching senior Art and Photography for 10 years at Secondary College's across the Mornington Peninsula, before moving to Abbotsford to teach Design and Technology at Sophia Mundi Steiner School.

In 2009, while on sabbatical in South Africa, I decided to follow my passion and studied Photography and Digital Imaging at the Vega National College of Photography in Johannesburg.

In 2014 I launched my professional photography business, specializing in shooting newborn and family portraiture and later moving into weddings. I especially love shooting my clients outdoors in natural light, capturing all the candid moments exactly as they happen.

I am a highly respected educator and speaker. This is a volunteer role which I commit many hours to each year, as I find it rewarding to teach and inspire others, while giving something back to the photographic community that helped me to realise my own dreams.

In my very limited spare time (in between parenting two young children, full time teaching, part time professional photography and a hefty volunteer commitment) I also practice Fine Art Photography, Painting, Sculpture, Woodwork, Metalwork, blacksmithing and silversmithing on a range of different projects which have personal significance to me.

Kim Wormald

Kim Wormald is a lifelong birder with a deep love of, and respect for, nature.

She enjoys photographing wild, un-baited birds in natural light.

Kim's images have received numerous national and international awards including as a three-time finalist in the Australian Geographic Nature

Photographer of the Year and in the 2021 Birdlife Photography Awards.

She has judged at state, national and international levels and enjoys presenting to camera clubs and environmental groups.

Kim's images are often used for conservation purposes by grassroots, government, and NFP organisations, such as the Australian Wildlife Conservancy and the Coalition Against Duck Shooting, to highlight the beauty and vulnerability of our natural world.

Domenic has had a relationship with photography for many years, initially with film and slide photography.

His interest peaked when digital cameras were becoming mainstream, and he was able to combine it with travelling.

The more photos he took the greater his interest and determination was to improve.

He joined a local camera club which really helped him advance his skills by trying multiple genres and photo editing.

He then had the opportunity to be president of a Camera Club which gave him the opportunity to help members improve and show them what a great hobby photography can really be.

He also developed an interest in judging and joined the APJA, which has a great training program.

When the APJA Secretary position became vacant he was given the opportunity to work with a great team and assist in the advancement of the APJA.

He continues his photography education and judging journey while assisting in the APJA committee.

Our Judges Profiles - Print Judges

Mario Mirabile

Mario has been involved in photography since the early eighties.

While he takes most of his photos in urban settings, he still enjoys getting out and finding inspiration in the natural environment.

A 10 week trip to Italy 2023 has also awakened an itch to do more travel, an itch he hopes to scratch in the near future.

He has won awards and exhibited in Australia and internationally, and is a Grand Master of the Australian Photographic Society.

Mario is an active member of the Caulfield Photographic Society (where he is currently President), the Australian Photographic Society and the Australian Photographic Judges Association.

Heather Prince MAPS, EFIAP

Heather has been a passionate photographer since receiving her first camera at age 10.

She has been member of Geelong Camera Club since 2008, serving 8 of those years as President. She has been a successful exhibitor in State, National and International salons gaining many awards and accolades along with her Master of the Australian Photographic Society (MAPS) and the Fédération Internationale de l'Art

Photographique (FIAP) Excellence Award.

Heather is a frequent guest presenter and judge at camera clubs all over Australia including APSLive and was a guest speaker at The Federation of Philippine Photographers Foundation 2021 (FPPF). "I am fortunate to have been very successful with my photography and I take great pleasure in sharing my knowledge and skills with fellow photographers."

Heather encourages people to join a camera club because she credits Geelong Camera Club with being her most important learning experience from sharing the passion for photography with like-minded people. She has travelled extensively overseas reaping the rewards of photography in different cultures.

She is a passionate advocate for the printed image and recognised for her Altered Reality digital compilations and Still Life photography.

Heather's motto is borrowed from Dianne Arbus: "I never have taken a picture I've intended. They're always better or worse".

Andrea Cornwall

My interest in photography started in late teens at university. I would spend hours in the dark room, watching the black and whites, appear magically in the processing tray.

Life got in the way and so about 15 years ago, I immersed myself back into the world of photography.

I began camera and editing courses and joined Knox Photographic Society in 2015. In 2018, I won Novice EDIs and runner up in Novice Prints. I was moved into A grade competition. I completed the VPJA Judging courses and have been enjoying judging for the last three years.

My passion is for wildlife photography, and I have expanded into landscapes and aerals. Portraiture has become important with the emergence of grandchildren and have an appreciation for creative photography and the beauty of simplicity.

Our Judges Profiles - Audio Visual Judges

Alia Naughton AV-AAPS, CAPS/b, SAPS

Alia is an award-winning photographer specialising in travel photography, audio visual making and photo books.

Her journey started as an 11 year old, when she photographed the building of the Gladesville Bridge and Sydney Opera House in NSW, Australia, on a school excursion.

Fast forward to today, Alia's photographs have been published in the Australian Photography magazine and she has won numerous awards, the biggest being the inaugural winner of the Sydney Morning Herald Big Picture competition in 2014, out of 2,500 entries. One of Alia's audio visuals was also selected for the AV-FIAP Collection as a Grand Prix National/International Distinction/Award.

Alia's interest in audio visuals started at the APS conference in 2003. Since then she has gone on to win national and international awards and also judges national and international AV competitions.

Bob Thomas

Bob has been an active member of several Victorian Camera Clubs, joining his first club in 2006.

During the intervening years he has occupied a variety of roles including secretary, webmaster, newsletter editor, computer operator and presenter.

He has also run a variety of internal and external photographic training courses and written numerous newsletter articles on the subject.

Externally, he has taught photography at the University of the Third Age, presented lectures to libraries and community houses and mentored new photographers as they began their own photographic journeys.

Competitively, he has won many club photographic competitions and awards over the last 17 years and has participated on numerous panels, judging committees. He was awarded the VAPS Meritorious Service Award in 2020. His AVs have won first place at VAPS three times as an individual and once as part of a team. In 2009 he won the 2009 APS National AV "Champion of Exhibition" plus many other AV awards.

He has judged AV competitions on many occasions and has been judging still images for both Victorian and Interstate clubs for some years.

His overall philosophy is that images and audio visuals should always generate an emotion in the mind of the viewer, provided that the emotion is not one of apathy or indifference. A picture is worth a thousand words, preferably engaging ones, and a good image or AV should draw the viewer back looking for more.

Graham Phillips

My photography journey started with a school camera club and continued for several years before study, tertiary education, a new job, and a family consumed most of my spare time. Where possible I still took photos and even tried a bit of video but there was no real effort or focus.

A transfer to Melbourne to pursue my career, resulted in the need for a social group and I joined a camera club where I was a committee member and competition steward and achieved annual awards in slides, colour prints, monochrome prints and DPI. While there my earlier attempts at video sparked an interest in Audio Visuals and I attended evenings at Melbourne CC which led to limited success in club and VAPS AV competitions.

Following retirement, I returned to Adelaide and joined a camera club and the South Australia Audio Visual Club where I am currently immediate past president. I have chaired the organising committee for the Adelaide International AV Festival and have been a member of the APS AV Division Council and I am the Australian contact for the international 321 AV competition. I have exhibited with some success at both national and international level, winning several awards for audio visual sequences.

The ability to use more of my photos to tell a story appeals to me, and with the addition of music, sound effects and narration when making an AV can lead to something magical.
